Author's Preface

NAMO GURU MUNI INDRAYA
(Homage to the Guru, King of Sages!)

I salute with my head the Bhagavan, King of the Shakyas,
Who is the ripe fruit of five hundred vows he had made
To liberate us hard to tame sentient beings
Whom other conquerors' children have left behind!

To the Conquerors' children, lords of the ten stakes,
such as Maitreya, Manjughosa, and Pādmapani,
And the arhats, such as the excellent pair, Kashyapa,
The sixteen elders, and retinue: devout homage!

Requested by other scholars for a full rite
For making prostration, offering, praise, requests,
And prayers to the deity host of the peerless King
Of the Shakyas, I shall compose one here today.

How the future Shakyamuni generated bodhichitta

Our compassionate teacher, the peerless Lion of the Shakyas, generated unbearable great compassion towards the infinite migrating beings throughout space, who are afflicted with many hundreds of miseries in samsara. In the presence of buddhas beyond number, he repeatedly generated the thought of supreme enlightenment (bodhichitta) and made vows. Let us mention briefly some of these occasions that are revealed in the sutras and are well known.

Once he was born in a hell, pulling a cart. A companion of his, being very weak, was unable to pull the cart, so their ox-headed hell guardian stabbed him in the chest with a trident, making him wail. Unable to bear this, (Shakyamuni) generated intense great compassion and told the hell guardian, “Release this sentient being and put his rope on my head, I shall pull alone!” This angered the hell guardian, who stabbed him with the trident so that he died. He was reborn in the Heaven of the Thirty-Three. This is taught in the Sutra on Repaying Kindness.

The Sutra on the Fortunate Eon (Bhadra-kalpika-sutra) says that when born as the potter’s son Bhaskara he generated bodhichitta in the presence of Tathagata Shakyamuni the Great.

The Medicine chapter of the Vinaya (Bhaisajya-vastu) says that when born as King Tisya, he generated bodhichitta upon being told, “An elephant tamer can tame an elephant’s body but not the mind.”

The Sutra on the Dispelling of the Regret of King Ajatasatru (Ajatasatru-kaukrtya-vinodana-sutra) says that when born as the leading merchant’s son Vimalabahu, he was exhorted by Manjushri in the form of the monk Jñanaraja, and so generated bodhichitta in the presence of Tathagata Invincible Moon Banner.

The Sutra of Inconceivable Secrets (Acintya-guhya-sutra) says that when he was Sarvarthasiddha, fourth son of the universal emperor Dhrtarastra, he generated bodhichitta in the presence of Tathagata Nanaratnavyuharaja (King of the Array of Various Jewels). There were many other similar occasions.

How in particular he adopted us, the unruly beings of when the five degeneracies grow, generating bodhichitta for our liberation

More countless eons ago than there are grains of sand in the Ganges, there was in this realm the great eon called Taking. At that time, (Shakyamuni) was born as the Brahman Mist of the Sea, chief minister of the universal emperor Aranemi. He induced this emperor, together with his thousand sons, 84,000 local rulers and 920 million creatures, besides uncountable gods, nagas, asuras, yakshas, rakshasas, kumbhandas, gandharvas, pretas, hell beings, and animals, to receive highest, fully complete enlightenment. When King Aranemi and the others were made to take their own buddha lands, all the bodhisattvas except Vishnuvayu took excellent, vast lands where only pure disciples dwelt. In particular, all the thousand and four bodhisattvas who were to attain enlightenment in this fortunate eon – Jyotipala and others – took under their care only disciples whose worlds were large, wealthy, long lived, and pure in mind. Thinking that just as no one would want to enter a mass of blazing fire, so no one could tame the sentient beings of the Age of Conflict (kali yuga) when the (maximum) lifespan is a hundred years, who are unruly and intractable, short lived, of few possessions, and given to evil thoughts, fighting, and dispute, they left them.

So Brahman Mist of the Sea generated strong, unbearable great compassion toward us, the beings of when the five degeneracies grow, just like that of a mother seeing her lovely only child fall in a pit of blazing fire. Because of this, his heart quivered like the leaves of a kimsuka tree, he grew extremely sad, and his flesh tensed all over his body. Then before Tathagata Ratnagarbha, calling as witness all the buddhas of the ten directions and, asking them to understand, he promised, “The sentient beings of this Saha world, of the Age of Conflict when the lifespan is a hundred years, are the object of my compassion; therefore, I shall tame them,” and for the sake of us migrating beings of when the five degeneracies grow, he made 500 great vows. Thereupon, the ground shook in the infinite realms of the ten directions, a great light shone, and all kinds of flowers rained down. Tathagata Ratnagarbha and all the buddhas and bodhisattvas of the ten directions congratulated him and scattered flowers. They praised him extensively, saying “Your magnanimity has no match among all bodhisattvas, as the white lotus has no equal among all flowers,” and so forth, as is taught in the White Lotus of Compassion Sutra (Karuna-pundariga.)

How he gathered the accumulations after thus generating bodhichitta

It says in the Vinaya:

From the Buddha Shakyamuni
To the Saviour Dhrtarastra,
Seventy five thousand buddhas,
All of whom I venerated.

From the Buddha Sobhita
To the Muni Indradhvaja,
Seventy six thousand buddhas,
All of whom I venerated.

From the Buddha Dipamkara
To the Buddha Kasyapa,
Seventy seven thousand buddhas,
All of whom I venerated.

And in Abhidharma kosa:

Pasyin, Dipa, Ratnasikhin
Came at the ends of the three countless (eons).
The first was Shakyamuni.

This teaches that (the Bodhisattva) gathered the accumulations for a first countless eon from Buddha Shakyamuni the Great to Buddha Ratnashikhin, then a second up to Dipamkara Buddha, then a third up to Buddha Vipashyin's coming to the world; (and the first of all the buddhas he worshipped was Shakyamuni).

This is according to the Common Vehicle, but as for the special, Mahayana view, the Moon Lamp (Candra-pradipa) Sutra (Samadhiraja-sutra) says:

A million million buddhas, and yet more,
 As many as the sand grains of the Ganges,
 Have all dwelt on this very Vulture Peak:
 And all those Lords of Mankind have I honored...

and so on at some length. Thus we must accept that the Teacher gathered the accumulations (of merits and wisdom knowledge) by worshipping and honoring measureless, countless buddhas, as many as the sands of the Ganges, while he was on the path of learning. We also know this through texts such as the Explanation of the Qualities of the Ten Stakes (sa bcu'i yon tan bshad pa).

Teachings from the Bodhisattva-pitaka on how he generated bodhichitta and progressed along the stages and paths

Once, when he was born as the young prince Practitioner of Perseverance, he generated bodhichitta by worshipping and honoring the Tathagata Mahapriya and his Sangha of Disciples for 960 million years.

Then after one countless eon, he was born as the leading merchant Prajnabhadrā, and by worshipping and honoring Tathagata Ratnanga and his Sangha of Disciples for a thousand years generated bodhichitta and fully achieved the paths.

After another countless eon, when he was born as the Brahman child Kumaramegha, he spread out his golden hair and scattered handfuls of utpala flowers for the Tathagata Dipamkara. This Buddha predicted, "A countless eon in the future, Brahman child, you will become a Tathagata called Shakyamuni."

I think these teachings refer respectively to the beginnings of the first, second, and third countless great eons.

How he trained in the powerful practices

Partial indications of how, when training in the practices of a Conquerors' Son after generating bodhichitta, he most bravely trained in difficult deeds such as no other bodhisattvas of the past or future could practice, without a moment's thought considering priority for his own welfare or being tired and discouraged about the powerful practices, appear in detail in the thirty-four birth stories of Master Aryasura's Jataka-mala, (the 108 of) the Avadana-kalpalata by Ksemendra, and the birth stories by the Tibetan scholar Karmapa Rangjung Dorje (1284-1339).

It would be hard for anyone to tell the rest in full. This is apparent, for example, from the Sutra of the Wise and the Foolish (Damamuko-nama-sutra), which says that when he was King Chandraprabha (Moonlight), a Brahman called Parivrttatejas (Spreading Brilliance All Around) asked him for his head, under a certain tree. (The Bodhisattva) said that in the past he had given his head 999 times under that very tree, so the gift of his present head would make a whole thousand. If his giving of a single head under a single tree was like this, who but the conquerors or their great children could know completely how he trained in other bodhisattva practices in other places?

His Enlightenment

By such measureless austerities, which it is hard for those of little courage even to rejoice at, and which frighten one just to hear of, he completed in a short time the practices of a Conquerors' Son, and attained Buddhahood in the Sambhogakaya in the Akanistha Pure Land, whose ground and interior are adorned with flowers. He then worked for the benefit of migrating beings by inconceivable emanations for taming them in the infinite worlds throughout space.

The Twelve Deeds

First Deed

When the time drew near for his previous generation of bodhichitta and vows to ripen and for him to show the deeds of the supreme nirmanakaya (emanation body) in this Saha world, he manifested taking rebirth as a noble god called Svetaketu in Tushita, and satiated the gods with Dharma.

When the time came for him to come to Jambudvipa (Earth), he taught at length to Maitreya and many other gods the 108 doors into the light of the Dharma. He consecrated Ajita (i.e. Maitreya) as regent by binding a jeweled diadem around his head and after checking for the five circumstances, left Tushita with an entourage of countless gods and an inconceivable variety of offerings.

Second Deed

In Jambudvipa, he entered the womb of Queen Mahamaya, the younger wife of King Shuddhodana, who was observing fast day vows (posadha), and dwelt for ten months, fully clothed, on a fine couch in a great palace that was manifested in her right side. (There) he taught the Dharma to countless bodhisattvas and infinite disciples such as gods of the virtuous party, nagas, and yakshas, establishing them in maturity and liberation.

Third Deed

Then in the Lumbini grove, he was born with the thirty-two remarkable presages through his mother's right ribs, like the sun rising from between clouds. Many gods and nagas now worshipped him. He took seven steps in each of the four directions and proclaimed his lion's roar, "In this world I am supreme...." Next, while gods and human beings worshipped him with immeasurable offerings, he was taken to the palace at Kapilavastu.

When he was born, all King Suddhodana's desired aims were realized; the yaksha Shakyavardha and the gods Brahma, Shakra, and others paid homage; and the fierce and arrogant Shakyas were intimidated, unable to stand the splendor of his body. Thus, he received in turn the names of Fulfiller of All Aims (Sarvartha-siddha, i.e. Siddhartha), God of Gods, and Sage of the Shakyas (Shakyamuni).

The soothsayers prophesied that if he stayed in the palace he would become a universal emperor, but if he went forth from home into homelessness he would become a complete and perfect Buddha.

Fourth Deed

As his father Shuddhodana wanted him to work for the welfare of beings by technical skills and encouraged him to do so, (Shakyamuni) manifested the appearance of studying subjects like letters and astrology. He demonstrated such skill in these, as well as in the arts of archery, jumping, wrestling holds, and so forth, as no one had ever done before. By these skilful arts, he ripened gods and human beings beyond number.

Fifth Deed

Then he took to wife 60,000 women, Yashodhara and others. By this deed of skill in means in governing righteously, he ripened measureless, countless beings.

Sixth Deed

After a while, the buddhas of the ten directions and gods of the white side exhorting him with sounds of singing, cymbals, and other musical instruments, the thought came to him that it would soon be time to go forth. In the four gates of the city he saw in turn an aged and decrepit sentient being, a sick one, a dead one, and a phantom monk (bhikshu). He manifested perceiving truly because of these the shortcomings of the household life and the advantages of going forth.

In his twenty-ninth year, though many hundreds of guards blocked every door of the palace, he climbed down from on top of a divine ladder placed there by Panchika and mounted (his horse,) Kanthaga. With the four lokapalas holding up Kanthaga's hooves, they left quickly, with a vast entourage of gods and an inconceivable variety of offerings.

They crossed the territories of the Shakyas, the Krodyas and the Mallas, then went six leagues past the large town of the Maineya country and came to the bank of the Anoma river near a village on Vriji territory. At the Visuddhacaitya, (the Bodhisattva) cut his own hair. Receiving from Shakra a red robe that had been left behind by earlier sages, he performed the Going Forth (as a homeless monk). He gave his jewels and Kanthaga to Chandaka (his groom) and sent him away.

Seventh Deed

Then he crossed the Ganges and reached Magadha. There he lived a life of austerities twice as hard as that of previous sages, so receiving the name of The Great Ascetic (Maha-shramana). Five hundred servants were sent to him during this time, from Kapilavastu and his mother's home, but he accepted only Kaundinya and four other men and sent the rest back. Then he dwelt for six years on the bank of the Nairanjana, in austerities and concentration. It is said that by this skilful deed he ripened 1,200,640 million gods and human beings.

Eighth Deed

After this he left off austerities and ate gross food. He bathed in the Nairanjana river. The village chief's daughters Sujata and Nandabala offered him some milk rice made from the sixteen times extracted essence of the milk from a thousand excellent cows. When he ate this, his marks and signs and his aura shone (visibly). Then he went to the Seat of Enlightenment at Vajrasana (Bodhgaya). Obtaining some durva grass from the boy grass seller Svastiga, he spread it out as a seat and sat on it crosslegged.

Ninth Deed

Beams of light radiated from between his eyebrows, making all the abodes of the maras tremble. Aware of this, Mara the Evil One (their chief) approached the bodhi tree with an innumerable host of maras and rained weapons upon his body; but by the power of his concentration on loving kindness, they turned into a rain of flowers.

Then Mara the Evil One said, “Ho, young Prince! Get up and rule your kingdom! With merits like yours, how could you win liberation?”

Shakyamuni replied, “If you, Evil One, could become lord of the Desire Realm through one transitory offering, why should I not be able to win Supreme Enlightenment through making countless transitory offerings?”

Mara answered, “You are the witness that I have made one transitory offering, but who is a witness that you have made countless ones?”

In reply, the Bodhisattva touched the earth with his right hand and said:

This earth is the dwelling of all beings,
Moving and fixed alike, without bias.
It is my witness that I do not lie.
Take it as my witness in this matter!

Thereupon the earth shook in six ways, and out of it rose the earth goddess Sthavara as far as her navel. With folded palms, she said, “Great Being, it is so. I have perceived it just as you say. In fact, you yourself are the witness for the whole world, including the gods,” and then she disappeared.

Then many daughters of Mara displayed numerous cunning tricks, half uncovering their faces and so forth; but by concentration on foulness he magically transformed them to be aged and decrepit. Thus he scattered the hosts of maras, and many of them generated the thought of Supreme Bodhi.

Tenth Deed

After that, he entered the Space-pervading Concentration, and as dawn broke on the fifteenth (Full Moon) of the Vaishakha month (April-May), he manifested the attaining of Buddhahood. Thereupon the gods scattered flowers knee deep, the earth shook, and all realms were filled with light.

Eleventh Deed

Then, for many reasons such as to make people understand the rarity of the Dharma and to let requesters gather vast merits, for seven weeks he manifested indifference, not turning the Wheel of Dharma.

Two merchants, Trapusa and Bhallika, offered him food, and the Four Great Kings (the guardians of the four directions) offered him four stone alms bowls, which he magically transformed into one; he put the food in this and ate, pronouncing some auspicious verses.

After that, on repeated and fervent requests by Brahma Shikhin and others, he agreed to turn the Wheel of Dharma. He went to the Rsivadana Deer Park at Varanasi. There he turned the Wheel of the Doctrine of the Four Truths, with twelve points in three cycles, to his first five disciples and 80,000 gods, maturing and liberating them.

Then he matured and liberated infinite gods and human beings, including successively his five close disciples; Uruvilva Kashyapa, Gaya Kashyapa, Nadi Kashyapa, Shariputra, and Maha Maudgalyayana; and 250 of their entourage.

The fame of this deed spread across the surface of the world. King Shuddhodana heard about him and invited him repeatedly to Kapilavastu. Accordingly, he went to Kapilavastu and established many hundreds of thousands of Shakyas, including Shuddhodana and his four brothers, and innumerable other gods and human beings in maturity and liberation.

At Shravasti, he showed the Great Miracle and defeated the six tirthika teachers, maturing and liberating 90,000 of their followers and countless other gods and human beings.

Then he saw that through excess of devotion to the teacher and his disciples, the honor all the people were showing to the Sangha had become so great, it was turning into a hindrance to the Dharma. To stop this, and to establish in the vision of truth his mother Mahamaya, who had been reborn as a god – for to establish his parents in the vision of truth is one of the ten deeds every Buddha must perform – and for many other reasons besides, he went to the Heaven of the Thirty-Three. There he consented to pass the rains residence on the Armoniga rock under the Pariyatrakovidara tree with 8,000 arhats, Shariputra, and others.

When the rains residence was over, he went up level by level as far as Akanistha (highest heaven of the Realm of Form), benefiting infinite gods. On the request of the monks, Maudgalyayana begged that they return to Earth; so on the twenty-second of the ninth month, they descended to the city of Kasi (Varanasi) on a ladder made by the gods, some going on foot and some by magical powers. This gave abundance of joy to the eyes and minds of limitless people, and sowed in them the seeds of liberation. Seeing the various thoughts people had at that time, he told them how samsaric perfection (such as being a god) is valueless, and what is important is to be heading towards liberation. For innumerable disciples, he flung wide the gates of liberation, with the three vehicles.

Then he went to Vulture Peak. With inconceivable miracles, such as making the earth shake in six ways and filling hundreds of realms with rays of light, he turned for innumerable disciples – bodhisattvas, hearers, gods, nagas, and others – the Dharma wheel of Marklessness, his intermediate teaching.

At Vaishali, he turned the Well-Proportioned Dharma wheel, his final teaching. In addition, in other places he taught inconceivable entrances into the Doctrine, in accordance with disciples' dispositions, thoughts and latent tendencies.

To establish thus in maturity and liberation such countless, measureless, numberless disciples, divine, human, and other, could be the act of no one else but a buddha.

Twelfth Deed

When he had finished benefiting thus most of his direct disciples, out of his extreme compassion for us who lack the fortune to see him physically, he then dedicated one fifth of his lifespan as a cause for the Dharma to flourish and remain a long time. Sacrificing his life energy, he generated inspiring power so that the Doctrine would remain for 5000 years. In order to tame his two last direct disciples, the gandharva king Supriya and the wandering ascetic Subhadra, he manifested keeping himself alive by magical inspiring power for three more months.

Then he went to Kushinagari, where he established Supriya and Subhadra in maturity and liberation and told his followers, "O four classes of followers, study my twelve-fold teaching that conduces to well being! Take the pratimoksha (discipline) as your teacher! Let the older attract the younger with the necessities of life; let the younger not call their elders by name! Teach the faithful four things about the teacher: his birth, his enlightenment, his teaching the Dharma, and his passing into nirvana! Ask, monks, if you have doubts about the Three Jewels or the Four Truths!"

He then removed his upper garment, saying, "Look, monks, on the body of the Tathagata, for the sight of a tathagata's body is rare! Monks, be silent a short while! All conditioned things are liable to dissolution, like this. There, that ends the speech of the Tathagata."

Having said this, he displayed the passing away into nirvana. He exerted his magical transforming power so that the eight portions of his remains and the immeasurable relic particles like mustard seed that came from them increased to cover the whole world. Every sentient being who pays homage to and worships these relic particles will become irreversible in (one of) the three vehicles, according to his intention. When the true doctrine disappears from this Saha world and it becomes poor in precious things, these relic particles will turn into the lapis lazuli gem called kalpamati and dispel the poverty. The gems will rise right up to the Akanistha Heaven, and a rain of various flowers will fall; from the rain of flowers will come many words of Dharma. The gods of the realms of desire and form will hear these words and recall their past roots of virtue. Losing all desire for their own homes, they will descend into the lands of human beings and fix and establish them on the ten wholesome paths of action.

In such ways, even his bodily remains and relics have benefited and will benefit sentient beings inconceivably.

Summary of Shakyamuni's Career

Thus, when he first generated bodhichitta, the Compassionate Teacher excelled other bodhisattvas at their first generation of bodhichitta by his courage. In the middle, when gathering the accumulations, he excelled other bodhisattvas engaging in the practice by his austerities. At the end, when attaining buddhahood, he excelled all other buddhas of the ten directions by his kindness towards us. This is well known, it appears very clearly in the sutras that it is not partiality by his followers.

The Importance of Worshipping the Buddha

In the Ten-Wheel Ksitigarbha Sutra (Dasacakra-ksitigarbha-nama-mahayana-sutra) it says:

Bliss and happiness in the world
 All comes from worshipping the Jewels;
 So anyone wanting bliss and happiness
 Always should strive to worship the Jewels.

This teaches that all bliss and happiness in this and future lives comes from worshipping and honoring the Three Jewels, so anyone desiring self comfort must strive in the worship of the Three Jewels. Out of the three, the buddha jewel is the highest Field of Merit.

For the Praise of Him Worthy of Praise (Varnarhavarna, by Matrçeta) says:

In the three worlds, there is no
Field (of merit) equal to You.
You are the best of objects of giving,
The purest of the respectable.

And it is also taught that looking with faith at the body of a Tathagata for just an instant has greater merit than honoring a thousand million Pratyeka Arhats for many years; that by praising the Tathagata with just one verse, a Brahman closed the door to rebirth in the realms of woe for twenty great eons; and that each time one remembers a Tathagata cuts off rebirth in ill destinies for an eon. Many such statements can be found.

The Importance of Worshipping Shakyamuni Buddha in Particular

For us, worshipping the Lord of the Doctrine, our Teacher, the King of Sages is of greater merit than worshipping other buddhas: even if no scriptural source is found stating this, it is established by reasoning. For buddhas are the supreme field of merit by reason of being the unsurpassable field of virtues, and our Teacher, the King of Sages, is not only the supreme field of virtues but the unsurpassable field of benefit (to us). It is like, for example, the killing of an arhat who is your father being a greater fault than the killing of some other arhat.

Therefore, we followers of Shakyamuni must hold him, the King of Sages, as our principal object of worship, above all other buddhas. For as all good accumulations in our minds, from the decrease of the slightest fault and the growth of the slightest virtue upwards, are the work of the speech of our teacher, the King of Sages, it is exceedingly beneficial to honor and worship him with the thought of repaying him for what he has done. Also, not to repay his kindness would be a burden heavier than the ocean and Mount Meru together, and one who does repay his kindness is taught in the Song of the Naga King Bheri (Nagaraja-bheri-gatha) to be an object of praise by the wise.

Benefits of Worshipping Shakyamuni

There are extensive benefits, such as that speaking the name of the Conqueror Shakyamuni purifies the sins of 10,000 eons, and that hearing his name plants the seed of irreversibility from Supreme Enlightenment.

If an image of the teacher is kept in a temple as the main object of worship, and a continual practice is made of offerings and worship to it, then in that region, the Buddha's Doctrine will flourish and the Sangha will increase. As is well known, this is a fact. Understanding its importance, Avalokiteshvara took the appearance of a king as the Righteous King Songtsän Gampo, and before the introduction of Buddhism to snowy Tibet, skillfully had two images of Jowo (Lord) Shakyamuni brought in from China and Nepal. He built the Tsug-lag-kang in Lhasa, set them up in it, and made it the practice to worship them. When, as prophesied by the Conqueror himself, the Magnanimous Lord (Tsongkhapa), guru to the beings of the three realms, was restoring the Buddha's deteriorated Doctrine from its foundations, he first renovated the Lhasa Tsug-lag-kang and its images, and instituted the practice of making offerings before the Jowo Shakyamuni statue during the festival of the Great Miracle, from the first to the fifteenth of the first month, for as long as the Conqueror's Doctrine should remain.

That the Conqueror's Doctrine will flourish if this is done is also the thought of the teacher, for it is taught in the chapter on separating pure and impure doctrine in the King of Imparting Instruction Sutra:

To images of me, of both kinds,
Offer head ornaments, and worship!
Proclaiming my words as in the Sutras,
Make request with pleasant voice!
If you make request to me,
The Doctrine will stay a thousand years.

That is, that the Doctrine should flourish and remain for a thousand years is due to worshipping and praying to images of the Teacher.

(King) Langdarma, who because of a wicked vow was skilled in making the Doctrine disappear, just as because of evil karma a cat is skilled in killing birds and mice, knew that if the Teacher's image remained visible and was continually honored and worshipped, the Doctrine would not disappear. He therefore hid the two Jowo Shakyamuni images in a dark room, and so forth. If even he thought that, there can be no doubt that in a country where there are images of the Teacher and the practice of making prostration, offering and prayer to them is widespread, the Doctrine will flourish and remain for a long time.

Whether you are a monk or nun or a layperson, you should set up in your home, etc., an image of the Teacher as your main object of worship, and make it your inviolable practice to make prostrations and offerings to it every day on rising, without fail. As is well known, nowadays tirthikas (Hindus) make prostration and offering at the Mahabodhi temple in Bodhgaya; and when on the orders of Jamyang Senior the deity statues of the Bönpo were destroyed, though there was no other Buddhist image among them there was an image of the Teacher. If the Compassionate Teacher is thus an object of worship even for Hindus and Bönpo, how can it be right for us avowed followers of Shakyamuni not to do the same?

Many advantages come from following the above (advice). For example, you will accumulate immeasurable merits, good fortune will come to your home or room, it will be hard for enemies, evil spirits and other hindrances to overcome you, and you will not die before your time. They have proofs by scripture and reasoning, but this is too much to write here.

The Wearing of Buddha Images

For followers of Shakyamuni to wear his image inseparably was a wonderful practice of the Kadampas of old; the best still have this practice undeteriorated to this day. Je Gungthangpa in particular taught that tying an image of Shakyamuni round one's body or neck is a great protection that enemies, hindering spirits and so forth cannot penetrate. This is quite true, for there is a story about a man who wore with faith and devotion a piece from a Buddhist monk's robe and could not be harmed by an adversary, and it is not possible that an image of Shakyamuni could have less power than a piece of a robe.

Such benefits accrue because firstly, when the Teacher was still on the Path of Learning, he made the following vow, as is taught in the White Lotus of Compassion Sutra (Karuna-pundariga); and secondly, it is taught in the same sutra that Ratnagarbha predicted this vow would be fulfilled:

When I awaken to Buddhahood, let all sentient beings who for my Doctrine wear garments of dull red, or for even one instant generate the recognition of me as teacher or a thought of respect, become irreversible in the three vehicles!

Let all sentient beings who, feeling respect as soon as they see my robes of dull red, tie (something of that color) round their neck, also become irreversible in the three vehicles!

Let all who touch even just four fingerwidths of a red robe be furnished with food and drink and let their wishes be fulfilled!

Let any sentient beings who, hating each other and with many differences, are quarrelling with, making war on and fighting each other, if they should but remember my robes of dull red, become of compassionate, gentle, and unquarrelsome mind, suitable for (religious) action!

Let any sentient beings who in battle, dispute, combat, or contention wear a scrub of dull red (cloth) for protection and to show honor and respect always be victorious, unerring and not harmful, and let them be delivered from those battles, disputes, combats, and contentions!

If my robes of dull red should not have these five noble qualities, then I shall have deceived all the buddha-bhagavans of the ten directions, so in that case let me be incapable of completing all the deeds of a buddha, let my teachings be forgotten, and let me be unable to overthrow the tirthikas!

This is an abridgment of the sutra's words, for the full version you must consult the actual sutra. "My robes" mean the robes of any monk or nun of Shakyamuni's tradition, it should not be interpreted as the Teacher's own clothing.

Engaging in the Actual Rite

A. Preparations before the Main Session

Preparation of the place

First, clean the room well. Sprinkle it with scented water and set out flowers. With great respect, display properly representations of the (Buddha's) body, speech, and mind, a statue of the Teacher being the principal one.

It is taught in the Vinaya that five benefits arise from cleaning the room. It is also taught that it purifies sins and obscurations, as happened with Cudapanthaga and Nanda, is a cause for rebirth in a pure land, and will ultimately be a cause for the purification of your buddha land. Therefore you should not think it is unimportant. By properly displaying the representations, too, vast merit is gathered, so you must try hard.

Setting Out Offerings

In front of the representations, set out in a beautiful arrangement some offering objects, real and artificial, obtained honestly through your own efforts. (They should include) the two waters and five standard offerings (flowers, incense, light, perfume, food), the five objects of sensual pleasure, the seven precious things (Precious Wheel, etc.), the eight auspicious symbols (srivatsa, etc.) and eight auspicious things (mirror, etc.), flags, banners, incense powder, parasols, festoons, ornamental garlands, pillar decorations ('phan) and so forth; and an alms bowl, the three robes of a monk, a crown of the five (buddha) families, white and sweet, hard and soft, food and drink, etc.

It is taught in the Sayings of Sharawa (sha ra ba'i gsung sgras) that these must not be like moldy cheese or yellowing vegetables, but of the best; accordingly they should be better than you would use yourself, or at least no worse. It is taught that to offer the worst to the Jewels and use the best yourself brings more harm than benefit.

If you can afford it, the vessels for the offerings should be of precious materials, but even if you cannot, it is important to clean and polish them until they shine. Pänchen Losang Yeshe, whenever he made a fingerprint on an offering bowl, made a practice of immediately wiping it off and purifying it with incense smoke.

Offering water should be of the eight qualities, or if you cannot manage that, at least clear, not foul, and harmless to the stomach and throat when drunk. Since if you overfill the bowls, you run great risk of mental instability; if you spill offering water, of immorality and attracting no followers; if you underfill the bowls, of poverty; and if you arrange the bowls crookedly, of not completing your virtuous actions, set out (the bowls) neatly, avoiding such faults. When you offer (the water), do it meticulously as if you were offering tea to a great king, in barley grain fashion – thin at both ends and thick in the middle (i.e. start gently, build up, then tail off smoothly) while reciting the Offering Cloud Dharani (OM NAMO BHAGAVATE...).

However many times you offer water, it is an excellent way of (creating good) conditions: such faults as avarice do not arise; it powerfully purifies such obscurations as karma, defilements, and (misusing) offered wealth; your mind is saturated with friendliness, compassion and bodhichitta, and so forth. Past holy beings of both the Old Kadampa tradition and the New (Gelugpa) have therefore stressed this practice.

In accordance with the teaching that the “offering” resides not in the thing offered but in the faith (with which you offer it), even if you have no possessions, you should strive to offer water, mandalas and (ownerless) offerings not mentally grasped at. Those who do have possessions but are unable to offer them because of avarice should also make efforts with this kind of offering. If out of scorn for the smallness of your offerings you do not offer them, you could go on like that all your life. Rather, as is taught in the Lam-Rim, you should train according to Puchhungwa’s practice, improving in small stakes as you increase your efforts.

If you have the best butter (or oil) for your lamps, perfect in color, odor, and taste, the merit will be great. You should make the wick twisted to the right tightness, of the proper length for the lamp, and neither too thin so that it stays alight too long, nor too thick so that it burns too fast. It is taught in the Bka’ gdams kyi bstan rims (sic) that to make it both slow (burning) and bright is correct. Many benefits are taught to arise from offering lamps, such as realizing the super-knowledges and the pure Dharma eye.

Food offerings should according to custom be made of whatever pure food is best, and of perfect shape, decorated with ornaments of fresh butter. It is also taught that if you mix the five medicines, the five essences, and so forth with the food, then temporarily this will eliminate sickness, famine, poverty, etc., and you will not be reborn in an age of famine, etc., while ultimately you will gain the perfect qualities of the faculties and powers.

If you take the above as an indication and offer other offerings that are of excellent materials, costly, of fine color and shape and perfect in scent, taste and everything, this will be exceedingly powerful in completing your merits, so strive to do so. The benefits of individual offerings can be learned from The Mirror Reflecting the Measurements of a Deity Image (Iha sku'i phyag tshad gzugs brnyan Ita ba'i me long), found among the collected works of Je (Tsongkhapa).

The Mahayana Ordination

Next, washed clean outside and inside, put on fresh clothes. It will be perfect and the advantages very great if you abide in the Fast Day Vows (upavasa) of either the Hinayana or the Mahayana if you are a layperson, or the Mahayana Fast Day Vows (posadha) if you are a monk or nun.

Benefits of the Fast Day Vows

The Place-assigning Sutra says:

One cannot tell in potfuls how much water there is in the Ganges and the rest of the Five Great Rivers and in the ocean, but even if one could still not grasp the measure of the merits of Fast Day Vows, the merits of honoring with all one's possessions as long as one lived arhats filling Jampudvipa would not approach even a hundredth, nay not a thousandth part of the merits of keeping Fast Day Vows just once. By keeping

Fast Day Vows once, one can experience heavenly bliss for a period equal to the lifespans in the six heavens of the Desire Realm, from the Heaven of the Four Great Kings (the lowest) to that of Controlling Others' Creations (the highest).

And the Prediction of Maitreya (Maitreya-vyakarana) Sutra says:

If one keeps Fast day Vows purely once now, then during the teaching of the fifth Buddha one will attain the Arya Path.

There are many other such teachings. These were the advantages of keeping Fast Day Vows in the good old days when the teachings had not degenerated. If you keep them now, when the five degeneracies are enormously increasing, the advantages are far greater still. For this is taught in the King of Concentrations (Samadhi raja) Sutra, and it is also said in Cleaning the Sage's Doctrine (thub bstan byi dor):

In an age such as the present, when the five degeneracies flourish very widely, keeping just one precept of the training for a single day and night is of greater benefit than keeping pure conduct (brahma-charya: all the bhiksu precepts) for countless years at the time when no fault had entered the eon or the Doctrine.

The advantages of the Mahayana Fast Day Vows are far greater than those of the Hinayana ones, the difference being like that between the sky and the eye of a needle. This can be established by many arguments from scripture and reasoning, but we shall not elaborate (here). Since Fast Day Vows are thus of immeasurable benefit, and it is clear that even a lay person constantly distracted by activities of this life can keep them quite purely for a short time, you should strive with all your might in this outstanding method for achieving great benefit with little trouble.

Shakyamuni Buddha Puja

Taking the Fast Day Vows

You can learn elsewhere how to take the Pratimoksa Fast Day Vows. This is how to take the Mahayana Fast Day Vows before an image.

In the last third of the night, before the sun has risen, make three prostrations before an image of the Teacher, then offer the seven limbs, reciting the first twelve verses of The Vow of the Conduct of Bhadra (King of Prayers):

You lions among humans,
Gone to freedom in the present, past and future
In the worlds of ten directions,
To all of you, with body, speech, and sincere mind, I bow down.

With the energy of aspiration for the bodhisattva way,
With a sense of deep respect,
And with as many bodies as atoms of the world,
To all you buddhas visualized as real, I bow down.

On every atom are buddhas numberless as atoms,
Each amidst a host of bodhisattvas,
And I am confident the sphere of all phenomena
Is entirely filled with buddhas in this way.

With infinite oceans of praise for you,
And oceans of sound from the aspects of my voice,

I sing the breathtaking excellence of buddhas,
And celebrate all of you gone to bliss.

Beautiful flowers and regal garlands,
Sweet music, scented oils, and parasols,
Sparkling lights and sublime incense,
I offer to you victorious ones.

Fine dress and fragrant perfumes,
Sandalwood powder heaped high as Mount Meru,
All wondrous offerings in spectacular array,
I offer to you victorious ones.

With transcendent offerings peerless and vast,
With profound admiration for all the buddhas,
With strength of conviction in the bodhisattva way,
I offer and bow down to all victorious ones.

Every harmful action I have done
With my body, speech, and mind
Overwhelmed by attachment, anger, and confusion,
All these I openly lay bare before you.

I lift up my heart and rejoice in all positive potential
Of the buddhas and bodhisattvas in ten directions,
Of solitary realizers, hearers still training, and those beyond,
And of all ordinary beings.

You who are the bright lights of worlds in ten directions,
Who have attained a buddha's omniscience through the stages of awakening,
All you who are my guides,
Please turn the supreme wheel of Dharma.

With palms together I earnestly request:

You who may actualize parinirvana,
Please stay with us for eons numberless as atoms of the world,
For the happiness and well-being of all wanderers in samsara.

Whatever slight positive potential I may have created,
By paying homage, offering, and acknowledging my faults,
Rejoicing, and requesting that the buddhas stay and teach,
I now dedicate all this for full awakening.

Then recite:

CHHOG CHU NA ZHUG PÄI SANG GYÄ DANG JANG CHHUB SEM PA
THAM CHÄ DAG LA GONG SU SÖL

All buddhas and bodhisattvas dwelling in the ten directions, please pay attention to me.

I go for refuge to the Buddha. I go for refuge to the Dharma.

GE DÜN LA KYAB SU CHHI WO (3x)

I go for refuge to the Sangha. (3x)

You should take refuge with the powerful thought of seeking refuge in the Three Jewels in terror of the sufferings of the realms of woe and of samsara, just as when harmed by an enemy the subservient seek refuge with the strong. If you do so, it is taught, many benefits arise, such as gaining vast merits, diminishing and bringing to an end karmic obscurations gathered previously, not falling into ill destinies, being invulnerable to human beings and spirits, and achieving all your intended aims. For the following teachings are cited in the Lam-Rim:

Had the merits of refuge form, the three realms would be too small a vessel...

That (a god) with the karma to be reborn as a pig purified it by taking refuge.

They who go to the Buddha for refuge will not migrate to realms of woe. (When they've left their human body, they get the body of a god.)

The story about the Tirthika with a wind lasso.

If at the beginning of any religious activity, one makes offering to the (Three) Jewels, takes refuge and prays for success, one will easily succeed.

There is (also) a teaching in the Lam-Rim that if one has refuge that is not just words, one is relying on an outstanding strength and so is not threatened by external or internal hindrances, while all kinds of good qualities increase with ease and degenerate with difficulty, thus growing more and more. Therefore, you should strive with all the power of mind you have to make your taking of refuge not just words.

Generating Bodhichitta

Repeatedly and intimately generate bodhichitta in your mind:

All those [you thirty-five buddhas] and others, as many ta-thagatas, arhats, perfectly completed buddhas as there are existing, sustaining, and residing in all the world systems of the ten directions; all you buddha-bhagavans, please pay attention to me.

In this life and in all the states of rebirth in which I have circled in samsara throughout beginningless lives, whatever negative actions I have created, made others create, or rejoiced in the creation of; whatever possessions of stupas, possessions of the Sangha, or possessions of the Sangha of the ten directions that I have appropriated, made others appropriate, or rejoiced in the appropriation of; whichever among the five actions of immediate (retribution) I have done, caused to be done, or rejoiced in the doing of; whichever paths of the ten non-virtuous actions I have engaged in, caused others to engage in, or rejoiced in the engaging in: whatever I have created, being obscured by these karmas causes me and sentient beings to be born in the hell realms, in the animal realm, and in the preta realm; in irreligious countries, as barbarians, or as long-life gods; with imperfect faculties, holding wrong views, or not being pleased with Buddha's descent. In the presence of the buddha-bhagavans, who are transcendental wisdom, who are eyes, who are witnesses, who are valid, and who see with omniscient consciousness, I am admitting and confessing all these negativities. I will not conceal them nor hide them, and from now on in the future I will abstain and refrain from committing them again.

All buddha-bhagavans, please pay attention to me. In this life and in all other states of rebirth in which I have circled in samsara throughout beginningless lives, whatever roots of virtue I have created by generosity, even as little as giving just one mouthful of food to a being born in the animal realm; whatever roots of virtue I have created by guarding morality; whatever roots of virtue I have created by following pure conduct; whatever roots of virtue I have created by fully ripening sentient beings; whatever roots of virtue I have created by generating bodhichitta; and whatever roots of virtue I have created by my unsurpassed transcendental wisdom: all these assembled and gathered, combined together, I fully dedicate to the unsurpassed, the unexcelled, that higher than the high, that superior to the superior. Thus, I completely dedicate to the highest, perfectly complete enlightenment.

Just as the previous buddha-bhagavans have fully dedicated, just as the future buddha-bhagavans will fully dedicate, and just as the presently abiding buddha-bhagavans are fully dedicating, like that I too dedicate fully.

I confess all negativities individually. I rejoice in all the merits. I urge and implore all buddhas to grant my request: may I receive the highest, most sublime transcendental wisdom.

To the conquerors, the best of humans — those who are living in the present time, those who have lived in the past, and those who will likewise come — to all those who have qualities as vast as an infinite ocean, with hands folded, I approach for refuge.

U hu lag! (Woe is me!)

O great Guru Vajradhara, all other buddhas and bodhisattvas who abide in the ten directions, and all the venerable Sangha, please pay attention to me.

I, who am named [say your name], circling in cyclic existence since beginningless time until the present, overpowered by mental afflictions such as attachment, aversion, and ignorance by means of body, speech, and mind have created the ten non-virtuous actions. I have engaged in the five uninterrupted negative karmas and the five nearing uninterrupted negative karmas. I have transgressed the vows of individual liberation, transgressed the vows of bodhisattvas, and transgressed the samaya of secret mantra. I have been disrespectful to my parents, have been disrespectful to my vajra masters, and to my abbot, and have been disrespectful to my spiritual friends living in ordination.¹ I have committed actions harmful to the Three Jewels, avoided the holy Dharma, criticized the arya Sangha, harmed sentient beings, and so on. These and many other non-virtuous negative actions I have done, have caused others to do, have rejoiced in others' doing, and so forth.

In the presence of the great Guru Vajradhara, all the buddhas and bodhisattvas who abide in the ten directions, and the venerable Sangha, I admit this entire collection of faults and transgressions that are obstacles to my own higher rebirth and liberation and are causes of cyclic existence and miserable lower rebirths. I will not conceal them, and I accept them as negative. I promise to refrain from doing these actions again in the future. By confessing and acknowledging them, I will attain and abide in happiness, while by not confessing and acknowledging them, true happiness will not come.

Praise

Next you should recite devotedly, thinking of the meaning and not letting your mind wander, some praises concerned with the previous lives and biography of the Teacher, such as the following:

By (the first) Panchen Lama: “A throat ornament for the supremely wise hero, the twice distilled essence of the thirty four Birth stories” (skyes rabs so bzhi ba’i yang snying mkhas mchog dpa’ bo’i mgul rgyan);

By (Tshe chhog ling) Yongdzin Yeshe Gyältshän: “The music of the Mahayana Dharma” (theg chen chos kyi sgra dbyangs), a praise connected with the thirty-four Birth stories;

Dü pung che thag... (bdud dpung phye ‘thag ma), a praise of the Twelve Deeds;

Gya chen tshog nyi... (rgya chen tshogs gnyis ma), a praise of the Great Miracle.

(Translator’s note: life is too short to translate every lama’s favourite hymns, even if one had the texts. The following praise will serve in place of the above.)

[Praising in this way brings] special advantages. For example, it will purify many karmic obscurations gathered in the past, sow special seeds for irreversibility from the highest enlightenment, and close the doors to rebirth in ill destinies for many great eons. For if it is taught that merely speaking the name of Buddha Shakyamuni purifies one's sins of 10,000 eons, hearing the name sows the seed of irreversibility from highest enlightenment, and praising the Buddha with a single verse closes the doors to the ill destinies for twenty great eons, then what need is there even to mention [the benefits] of one generates devotion by recollecting the previous lives and biography of the Teacher?

Nowadays, because of the degeneration of views, most people like talking about business, profits, war, and crime. If instead of this you were, motivated by faith, to recite, read, look at, and repeatedly recollect the previous lives and biography of the Teacher, or to generate devotion on hearing of them from someone else, then you would undoubtedly receive the benefits explained above. Therefore, whether you are a monk or nun or a layperson, never give up striving in this method that achieves great benefit for little trouble!

In addition, it is good to recite any inspiring praise such as the following two by Tsongkhapa, or such praises as:

The Precious Bright Lamp (rin chen gsal ba'i sgron me), a praise of Lord Maitreya by way of receiving consecration with great light, by Tsongkhapa;

The Ocean of Clouds of Praise to Manjughosa (bstod sprin rgya mtsho), also by Tsongkhapa;

Praise of Atisha (jo bo rje'i bstod pa);

Praise of the Magnanimous Lord (rje bdag nyid chen po'i bstod pa).

The Entry of Inspiration, a Praise of Shakyamuni;

NAMO SHRI GURU MANJUGHOSAYA

The Heart of Good Explanations

NAMO SHRI GURU MANJUGHOSAYA
(Homage to the glorious Guru Manjughosa!)

I salute the perfect Buddha,
Best of speakers, who has taught
Dependent arising, the serene
Stilling of elaborations,

Without cessation or production,
Not cut off and not eternal,
Neither coming nor going,
Without identity or difference.

Of all the ways of praising the Buddha, praising his teaching of dependent arising is the most sublime.

GANG ZHIG ZIG SHING SUNG WA YI
To Him who, by seeing and teaching,
GHYEN DANG TÖN PA LA NA ME
Is the supreme knower and teacher,
GYÄL WA TEN CHING DREL PAR JUNG
The Conqueror, who saw and explained
ZIG SHING DOM PA DE LA DÜ
Dependently linked arising, I bow.

JIG TEN GÜ PA JI NYE PA
Of the troubles of the world,
DE YI TSA WA MA RIG TE
The root of all is ignorance.
GANG ZHIG THONG WÄ DE DOG PA
You have taught dependent arising,
TEN CHING DREL PAR JUNG WAR SUNG
By seeing which this is averted.

DE TSHE LO DANG DÄN PA YI
How, then, could the intelligent
 TEN CHING DREL PAR JUNG WÄI LAM
Fail to understand that the path
 KHYÖ KYI TÄN PÄI NÄ NYI DU
Of dependently linked arising
 JI TAR KHONG DU CHHU MI GYUR
Is the essence of your teaching?

DE TAR LAG NA GÖN KHYÖ LA
This being so, Lord, who could find
 TÖ PÄI GOR NI SU ZHIG GI
As a way of praising you
 TEN NÄ JUNG WA SUNG WA LÄ
Anything more wonderful
 NGO TSHAR GYUR PA CHI ZHIG NYE
Than your teaching of dependent arising?

GANG GANG KYEN LA RAG LÄ PA
“Whatever is dependent on conditions
 DE DE RANG ZHIN GYI TONG ZHE
Is empty of inherent existence.”
 SUNG WA DI LÄ YA TSHÄN PÄI
What way of explaining could be
 LEG DOM TSHÜL NI CHI ZHIG YÖ
More amazing than this speech?

GANG DU ZUNG WÄ JI PA NAM
Just that through grasping at which the childish
 THAR DZIN CHHING WA TÄN JE PA
Strengthen the bonds of extreme views
 DE NYI KHÄ LA TRÖ PA YI
Is for the wise the means to cut
 DRA WA MA LÜ CHÖ PÄI GO
All the net of elaborations.

TÄN DI ZHÄN DU MA THONG WÄ

Since this teaching is not seen elsewhere,

TÖN PA ZHE JA KHYÖ NYI DE

You alone are called “The Teacher” –

WA KYE LA NI SENG GHE ZHIN

For a tirthika, it would be flattery

MU TEG CHÄN LA ANG CHAM BÜI TSIG

Like calling a fox a lion.

E MA HO TÖN PA E MA HO KYAB

O our Teacher! O our Refuge!

E MA HO MA CHHOG E MA HO GÖN

O Great Speaker! O Savior!

TEN CHING DREL JUNG LEG SUNG PÄI

To the Teacher who taught well

TÖN PA DE LA DAG CHHAG TSHÄL

Dependent arising, I prostrate.

Praising Buddha’s speech that asserts emptiness as the meaning of dependent arising

PHÄN DZÄ KHYÖ KYI DRO WA LA

What you, the beneficent,

MÄN PÄI LÄ DU KA TSÄL PA

Have spoken to help sentient beings

TÄN PÄI NYING PO TONG PA NYIN

Is the peerless reason for ascertaining emptiness,

GE PÄI GYU TSHÄN DA ME PA

The heart of the teaching.

TEN CHING DREL PAR JUNG WÄI TSHÜL

How could those who see

GÄL WA DANG NI MA DRUB PAR

The way of dependent arising

THONG WA DI YI KHYÖ KYI LUG
As contradictory or unproved
 JI TAR KHONG DU CHHU PAR NÜ
Ever understand Your system?

KHYÖ NI NAM ZHIG TONG PA NYI
When you see that emptiness
 TEN JUNG DÖN DU THONG WA NA
Is the sense of dependent arising,
 RANG ZHIN GYI NI TONG PA DANG
That agent and act work does not contradict
 JA JE THÄ PANG MI GÄL ZHING
Emptiness of inherent existence.

DE LÄ DOG PAR THONG WA NA
If one sees the opposite,
 TONG LA JA WA MI RUNG ZHING
Since act in the empty cannot be
 JA DANG CHÄ LA TONG ME PÄ
Nor emptiness in what has action,
 NYAM NGÄI YANG DU LHUNG WAR ZHE
One falls in a dreadful abyss, me thinks.

DE CHHIR KHYÖ KYI TÄN PA LA
Thus, one seeing dependent arising
 TEN JUNG THONG WA LEG PAR NGAG
As in your teaching is well praised.
 DE YANG KÜN TU ME PA DANG
Things are not totally non-existent
 RANG ZHIN GYI NI YÖ PÄ MIN
Nor inherently existent.

TÖ ME NAM KHÄI ME TOG ZHING
The independent is like a sky flower;
 DE NA MA TEN YÖ MA YIN
Therefore, there is nothing not dependent.

NGO WÖ DRUB NA DE DRUB PA

Existence by nature contradicts

GYU DANG KYEN LA TÖ PAR GÄL

Establishment resting on causes and conditions.

DE CHHIR TEN NÄ JUNG WA LÄ

Therefore, no dharma exists

MA TOG CHHÖ GA YÖ MIN PÄ

Apart from the dependently arisen.

RANG ZHIN GYI NI TONG PA LÄ

So, you taught, no dharma exists

MA TOG CHHÖ GA ME PAR SUNG

Apart from the empty of inherent existence.

RANG ZHIN DOG PA ME PÄI CHHIR

Since inherent nature can't stop, you taught,

CHHÖ NAM RANG ZHIN GA YÖ NA

if dharmas had any inherent nature

NYA NGÄN DÄ PA MI RUNG ZHING

Nirvana would be impossible

TRÖ KÜN DOG PA ME PAR SUNG

And elaborations could not be stopped.

DE CHHIR RANG ZHIN NAM DRÄL ZHE

Therefore, who can challenge him

SENG GHEI DRA YI YANG YANG DU

Who has taught repeatedly

KHÄ PÄI TSHOG SU LEG SUNG PA

With lion's roar, in gatherings of the wise,

DI LA SU YI GONG PAR NÜ

That they are free of inherent nature?

The virtue of regarding emptiness as the meaning of dependent arising

RANG ZHIN GA YANG ME PA DANG

That there is no inherent nature,

DI LA TEN NÄ DI JUNG WÄI

And that the whole presentation,

NAM ZHAG THAM CHÄ THÄ PA NYI

“This arises dependent on that,”

MI GÄL DU WA MÖ CHI GÖ

Is valid and doesn’t contradict, what more can one say?

TEN NÄ JUNG WÄI GYU TSHÄN GYI

“By reason of dependent arising,

THAR TA WA LA MI TEN ZHE

One does not rely on extreme views.” –

LEG SUNG DI NI GÖN KHYÖ KYI

This fine teaching, O Protector,

MA WA LA NA ME PÄI GYU

Is why your speech is sublime.

DI KÜN NGO WÖ TONG PA DANG

All is empty of self-nature;

DI LÄ DI DRÄ JUNG WA YI

From this, that effect arises –

NGE PA NYI PO PHÄN TSHÜN DU

These two certainties assist each other,

GEG ME PAR NI DR’OK JE PA

Without hindering.

DI LÄ NGO TSHAR GYUR PA DANG

What is more wonderful than this?

DI LÄ MÄ DU JUNG WA GANG

What is more marvellous than this?

TSHÜL DI KHYÖ LA TÖ NA NI

If you are praised in this way

TÖ PAR GYUR GYI ZHÄN DU MIN

That is praise – not other ways.

The trouble with not regarding emptiness as the meaning of dependent arising

MONG PÄ DRÄN DU ZUNG WA YI

When those who, because delusion

GANG ZHIG KHYÖ DANG ZHE DRÄ PA

Holds them slave, are hostile to you

DE YI RANG ZHIN ME PÄI DRA

Do not accept the word of non-inherent existence,

MI ZÖ GYUR LA TSHAR CHI YÖ

What is surprising?

KHYÖ KYI SUNG GI CHE PÄI DZÖ

But to accept the valued treasure

TEN NÄ JUNG WA KÄ LANG NÄ

Of your speech, dependent arising,

TONG NYI NGA RO MI ZÖ PA

Then not bear the roar of emptiness,

DI LA KHO WO NGO TSHAR GYUR

This I have to find surprising.

RANG ZHIN ME LA TRI WÄI GO

If through the very term of highest dependent arising,

LA ME TEN CHING DREL JUNG GI

The door that leads to non-inherent existence,

MING NYI KYI NI RANG ZHIN DU

They grasp inherent existence,

DZIN NA DA KO KYE WO DI

By what means

PAG CHHOG NAM KYI LEG DRO PÄI

Can these people be led

JUG NGOG DA DANG DRÄL GYUR PA

Into that good path that pleases you,

KHYÖ GYE GYUR PÄI LAM ZANG DER

The entrance way without a match

THAB GANG GI NI TRI WAR JA

Traveled well by supreme aryas?

The teaching that emptiness is the meaning of dependent arising eliminates the extreme views and establishes the validity of all the Buddha's teachings

RANG ZHIN CHÖ MIN TÖ ME DANG

Inherent existence, unmade, non-dependent;

TEN DREL TÖ DANG CHÖ MA NYI

Dependently linked, dependent, created –

JI TA BUR NA ZHI CHIG LA

How can these two be combined

MI GÄL DU WA NYI DU GYUR

Without contradiction, on one base?

DE CHHIR TEN NÄ JUNG WA GANG

Therefore, whatever arises dependently,

RANG ZHIN GYI NI DÖ MA NÄ

Though from the start completely free

NAM PAR WEN YANG DER NANG WÄ

Of inherent existence, appears to have it;

DI KÜN GYU MA ZHIN DU SUNG

So you said all this is like an illusion.

KHYÖ KYI JI TAR TÄN PA LA

The statement that in what you taught

GÖL WA GÄ KYANG CHHÖ THÜN DU

No opponent can find

LAG MI NYE PAR SUNG PA YANG

Any factual ground for disproof

DI NYI KYI NI LEG PAR KHUM

Is also well understood through this.

CHI LÄ CHE NA DI SHÄ PÄ

Why? Because this explanation

THONG DANG MA THONG NGÖ PO LA

Makes remote the chance that one

Or invisible things.

KHYÖ KYI MA WA DA ME PAR

The reason your speech is seen as peerless

THONG WÄI GYU TSHÄN TEN JUNG GI

Is the path of dependent arising.

LAM DI NYI KYI SUNG ZHÄN YANG

Through this, certainty is born

Dedication Prayers

Next, make a pure dedication prayer to increase the virtues you have gathered and make them inexhaustible. This is to be done as follows:

General Dedication

First, recite the noble Vow of the Conduct of Bhadra (King of Prayers), the great sum of countless hundreds of millions of bodhisattva prayers, thinking about the meaning of the words.

King of Prayers: the Extraordinary Aspiration of the Practice of Samantabhadra

I bow down to the youthful Arya Manjushri.

You lions among humans,

Gone to freedom in the present, past and future

In the worlds of ten directions,

To all of you, with body, speech, and sincere mind, I bow down.

With the energy of aspiration for the bodhisattva way,
With a sense of deep respect,
And with as many bodies as atoms of the world,
To all you buddhas visualized as real, I bow down.

On every atom are buddhas numberless as atoms,
Each amidst a host of bodhisattvas,
And I am confident the sphere of all phenomena
Is entirely filled with buddhas in this way.

With infinite oceans of praise for you,
And oceans of sound from the aspects of my voice,
I sing the breathtaking excellence of buddhas,
And celebrate all of you gone to bliss.

Beautiful flowers and regal garlands,
Sweet music, scented oils, and parasols,
Sparkling lights and sublime incense,
I offer to you victorious ones.

Fine dress and fragrant perfumes,
Sandalwood powder heaped high as Mount Meru,
All wondrous offerings in spectacular array,
I offer to you victorious ones.

With transcendent offerings peerless and vast,
With profound admiration for all the buddhas,
With strength of conviction in the bodhisattva way,
I offer and bow down to all victorious ones.

Every harmful action I have done
With my body, speech, and mind
Overwhelmed by attachment, anger, and confusion,
All these I openly lay bare before you.

I lift up my heart and rejoice in all positive potential
Of the buddhas and bodhisattvas in ten directions,
Of solitary realizers, hearers still training, and those beyond,
And of all ordinary beings.

You who are the bright lights of worlds in ten directions,
Who have attained a buddha's omniscience through the stages of
awakening,
All you who are my guides,
Please turn the supreme wheel of Dharma.

With palms together I earnestly request:
You who may actualize parinirvana,
Please stay with us for eons numberless as atoms of the world,
For the happiness and well-being of all wanderers in samsara.

Whatever slight positive potential I may have created,
By paying homage, offering, and acknowledging my faults,
Rejoicing, and requesting that the buddhas stay and teach,
I now dedicate all this for full awakening.

May you buddhas now living in the worlds of ten directions,
And all you gone to freedom in the past, accept my offerings.
May those not yet arisen quickly perfect their minds,
Awakening as fully enlightened ones.

May all worlds in ten directions,
Be entirely pure and vast.
May they be filled with bodhisattvas
Surrounding buddhas gathered beneath a bodhi tree.

May as many beings as exist in ten directions
Be always well and happy.
May all samsaric beings live in accord with the Dharma,
And may their every Dharma wish be fulfilled.

Remembering my past lives in all varieties of existence,
May I practice the bodhisattva way,
And thus, in each cycle of death, migration, and birth,
May I always abandon the householder's life.

Then, following in the footsteps of all the buddhas,
And perfecting the practice of a bodhisattva,
May I always act without error or compromise,
With ethical discipline faultless and pure.

May I teach the Dharma in the language of gods,
In every language of spirits and nagas,
Of humans and of demons,
And in the voice of every form of being.

May I be gentle-minded, cultivating the six paramitas,
And never forget bodhichitta.
May I completely cleanse without omission
Every negativity and all that obscures this awakening mind.

May I traverse all my lives in the world,
Free of karma, afflictions, and interfering forces,
Just as the lotus blossom is undisturbed by the water's wave,
Just as the sun and moon move unhindered through the sky.

May I ease the suffering in the lower realms
And in the many directions and dimensions of the universe.
May I guide all wanderers in samsara to the pure bliss of awakening
And be of worldly benefit to them as well.

May I practice constantly for eons to come,
Perfecting the activities of awakening,
Acting in harmony with the various dispositions of beings,
Showing the ways of a bodhisattva.

May I always have the friendship
Of those whose path is like mine,
And with body, words, and also mind,
May we practice together the same aspirations and activities.

May I always meet a spiritual mentor
And never displease that excellent friend,
Who deeply wishes to help me
And expertly teaches the bodhisattva way.

May I always directly see the buddhas,
Masters encircled by bodhisattvas,
And without pause or discouragement for eons to come,
May I make extensive offerings to them.

May I hold within me the Buddha's genuine Dharma,
Illuminate everywhere the teachings that awaken,
Embody the realizations of a bodhisattva,
And practice ardently in all future eons.

While circling through all states of existence,
May I become an endless treasure of good qualities –
Skillful means, wisdom, samadhi, and liberating stabilizations –
Gathering limitless pristine wisdom and positive potential.

On one atom I shall see
Buddha fields numberless as atoms,
Inconceivable buddhas among bodhisattvas in every field,
Practicing the activities of awakening.

Perceiving this in all directions,
I dive into an ocean of buddha-fields,
Each an ocean of three times' buddhas in the space of a wisp of hair.

So I, too, will practice for an ocean of eons.

Thus, I am continually immersed in the speech of the buddhas,
Expression that reveals an ocean of qualities in one word,
The completely pure eloquence of all the buddhas,
Communication suited to the varied tendencies of beings.

With strength of understanding I plunge
Into the infinite enlightened speech of the Dharma
Of all buddhas in three times gone to freedom,
Who continually turn the wheel of Dharma methods.

I shall experience in one moment
Such vast activity of all future eons,
And I will enter into all eons of the three times,
In but a fraction of a second.

In one instant I shall see all those awakened beings,
Past, present, and future lions among humans,
And with the power of the illusion-like stabilization
I will constantly engage in their inconceivable activity.

I shall manifest upon one single atom
The array of pure lands present, past, and future.
Likewise, I shall enter the array of pure buddha-fields
In every direction without exception.

I shall enter the very presence of all my guides,
Those lights of this world who are yet to appear,
Those sequentially turning the wheels of complete awakening,
Those who reveal nirvana – final, perfect peace.

May I achieve the power of swift, magical emanation,
The power to lead to the great vehicle through every approach,
The power of always beneficial activity,
The power of love pervading all realms,

The power of all surpassing positive potential,
The power of supreme knowledge unobstructed by discrimination,
And through the powers of wisdom, skillful means, and samadhi,
May I achieve the perfect power of awakening.

Purifying the power of all contaminated actions,
Crushing the power of disturbing emotions at their root,
Defusing the power of interfering forces,
I shall perfect the power of the bodhisattva practice.

May I purify an ocean of worlds,
May I free an ocean of beings,
May I clearly see an ocean of Dharma,
May I realize an ocean of pristine wisdom.

May I purify an ocean of activities,
May I fulfill an ocean of aspirations,
May I make offerings to an ocean of buddhas,
May I practice without discouragement for an ocean of eons.

To awaken fully through this bodhisattva way,
I shall fulfill without exception
All the diverse aspirations of the awakening practice
Of all buddhas gone to freedom in the three times everywhere.

In order to practice exactly as the wise one
Called Samantabhadra, 'All-Embracing Good,'
The elder brother of the sons and daughters of the buddhas,
I completely dedicate all this goodness.

Likewise may I dedicate
Just as the skillful Samantabhadra,
With pure body, speech, and mind,
Pure actions and pure buddha-fields.

I shall give rise to the aspirations of Manjushri
For this bodhisattva practice of all-embracing good,
To perfect these practices
Without discouragement or pause in all future eons.

May my pure activities be endless,
My good qualities boundless,
And through abiding in immeasurable activity,
May I actualize infinite emanations.

Limitless is the end of space,
Likewise, limitless are living beings,
Thus, limitless are karma and afflictions.
May my aspiration's reach be limitless as well.

One may offer to the buddhas
All wealth and adornments of infinite worlds in ten directions,
And one may offer during eons numberless as atoms of the world
Even the greatest happiness of gods and humans;

But whoever hears this extraordinary aspiration
And, longing for highest awakening
Gives rise to faith just once,
Creates far more precious positive potential.

Those who make this heartfelt aspiration for the bodhisattva way
Will be free of all lower rebirths,
Free of harmful companions,
And will quickly see Amitabha, Infinite Light.

And even in this very human life,
They will be nourished by happiness and have all conducive circumstances.
Without waiting long,
They will become like Samantabhadra himself.

Those who give voice to this extraordinary aspiration
Will quickly and completely purify
The five boundless harmful actions
Created under the power of ignorance.

Blessed with supreme knowledge,
Excellent body, family, attributes, and appearance,
They will be invincible to vast interfering forces and misleading teachers,
And all the three worlds will make offerings.

Going quickly to the noble bodhi tree,
And sitting there to benefit sentient beings,
Subduing all interfering forces,
They will fully awaken and turn the great wheel of Dharma

Have no doubt that complete awakening
Is the fully ripened result – comprehended only by a buddha –
Of holding in mind by teaching, reading, or reciting
This aspiration of the bodhisattva practice.

In order to train just like
The hero Manjushri who knows reality as it is
And just like Samantabhadra as well,
I completely dedicate all this goodness, just as they did.

With that dedication which is praised as greatest
By all the buddhas gone to freedom in the three times,
I, too, dedicate all my roots of goodness
For the attainments of the bodhisattva practice.

When the moment of my death arrives,
By eliminating all obscurations
And directly perceiving Amitabha,
May I go immediately to Sukhavati, Pure Land of Great Joy.

Having gone to Sukhavati,
May I actualize the meaning of these aspirations,
Fulfilling them all without exception,
For the benefit of beings for as long as this world endures.

Born from an extremely beautiful, superlative lotus
In this joyful land, the Buddha's magnificent mandala,
May I receive a prediction of my awakening
Directly from the Buddha Amitabha.

Having received a prediction there,
May I create vast benefit
For beings throughout the ten directions,
With a billion emanations by the power of wisdom.

Through even the small virtue I have accumulated
By offering this prayer of the bodhisattva practice,
May all the positive aspirations of beings
Be fulfilled in an instant.

Through creating limitless positive potential
By dedicating this prayer of Samantabhadra's deeds,
May all beings drowning in this torrent of suffering,
Enter the presence of Amitabha.

Through this king of aspirations, which is the greatest of the sublime,
Helping infinite wanderers in samsara,
Through the accomplishment of this scripture dazzling with Samantabhadra's practice,
May suffering realms be utterly emptied of all beings.

Special Dedications Aimed at Rebirth in Tushita

After that, those whose principal desire is to be born in Yiga Chödzin in the Tushita Pure Land should recite the Vow of Maitreya (Maitri-pranidhana), then, motivated by confident faith in the benefits explained in the sutras, repeat the Dharani of Maitreya's Promise (Arya-maitrina-pratijna-nama-dharani) as many times as possible, and after that do the three verses of dedication.

They should also recite, with intense yearning and without letting the mind wander elsewhere, the prayer for rebirth in Tushita by the Venerable Gungtang-pa.

The Noble King of Vows of Maitreya

Homage to all buddhas and bodhisattvas!

Prologue

Then the Venerable Ananda asked the Bhagavan: "What, Bhagavan, was the skillful means abiding in which the bodhisattva-mahasattva Maitreya fully realized complete and perfect enlightenment?"

And the Bhagavan said to the Venerable Ananda: "As to this, Ananda, when of yore the bodhisattva-mahasattva Maitreya was living in the conduct of a bodhisattva, three times a day and three times a night, he used to drape his upper robe over one shoulder, set his right knee on the ground, fold his palms and, imagining all the buddhas before his eyes, speak the following words:"

Opening the Door of the Supreme Land

Those whose principal desire is to be born in Sukhavati should if circumstances permit recite prayers for rebirth there, such as Tsongkhapa's "Opening the Door of the Supreme Land" (zhing mchog sgo 'byed.)

NAMO SHRI GURU MANJUGHOSAYA
(Homage to the glorious Guru Manjughosa!)

DE SHEG KÜN GYI NGAG PÄI DE WA CHÄN
Ruler of Sukhavati Pure Land,
NAM DAG ZHING GI WANG CHHUG CHOM DÄN DÄ
Praised by all the Sugatas – Bhagavan
LHA MI TÖN PA GÖN PO TSHE PAG ME
Lord Amitayus, teacher of gods and humans,
GYÄL WÄI WANG PÖ DRO LA CHHI ME TSÖL
King of Conquerors – You grant long life to beings.

Of doubt besetting infinite disciples
YANG DAG DÖN LA LO DRÖ MIG JE PÄI
And open the eye of wisdom to reality
GYÜN MI CHÄ PAR DROG PA KHYÖ KYI SUNG
With your speech, unceasingly proclaimed.

SHE JA KÜN LA RAB JAM KHYEN PA THRO

Spreading pervasive knowledge to all knowables,

GYÜ NGÄI DRO LA TUG JE ZHÄN WANG GYUR

Ruled by compassion for beings of the five streams,

KHYEN TSEI NÜ PÄ SI ZHI JIG LÄ KYOB

Its power of wisdom and love saves from fears of samsara

BÄ TSÖL TSHÄN MÄ MI YO KHYÖ KYI TUG

Therefore there's no other teacher like you,

NYE PÄI SA BÖN THA DAG TÄN PANG PA

An inexhaustible store of qualities

KHYÖ DANG TSHUNG PÄI TÖN PA ZHÄN YÖ MIN

From whom all seeds of faults have gone forever.

DE LÄ KHYÖ NYI CHIG PU DRO WÄI KYAB

You alone, then, are migrators' refuge.

Through your thousand million vows, protector,

LEG PAR DRUB PÄI ZHING CHHOG DAM PA GANG

You founded well the best of supreme lands

DUG NGÄL NAM KYI MING YANG MI JUNG WÄ

Where even the name of suffering is not found,

DE WA CHÄN ZHE YONG SU DRAG PA DER

Hence called the happy land, Sukhavati.

TSHE DI NANG WA NUB PAR GYUR TSAM NA

There, as soon as the light of this life fades,

DAB TONG PÄ MÄI BUB SU KYE MA THAG

Let me be born in a thousand-petalled lotus,

CHHU KYE Ü NÄ THOG PA ME JUNG TE

Rise from within the lotus without hindrance,

KHYÖ KU THONG NÄ SUNG GI TSHIM PAR SHOG

Behold your form, and drink my fill of your speech!

GÖN PO KHYÖ LA THEG CHHOG TAM THÖ NÄ

When, Lord, I've heard Your Mahayanic speech,

SI PÄI DAM DU JING NAM DRÄL CHHIR DU

Just as Avalokita behaves

CHÄN RÄ ZIG DANG THU CHEN TOB NYI KYI

To free those sinking in samsara's mire,

And Mahasthamaprapta, let me, too!

Offering of Thanks

If it is desired to make homage, offering, in thanksgiving, then recite:

TÄN PÄI DAG PO TÖN PA CHOM DÄN DÄ

To the lord of the Doctrine, the bhagavan teacher,

TSA GYÜ LA MA SANG GYÄ JANG SEM DANG

And hosts of root and lineage gurus, buddhas,

PAG PA NYÄN RANG CHHÖ SUNG TSHOG CHÄ LA

Bodhisattvas, hearers, pratyekas, protectors,

GO SUM GÜ PA CHEN PÖ CHHAG TSHÄL LO

With my three doors, I pay homage in great devotion.

Then offer the seven limbs with the first twelve verses of the Vow of Conduct of Bhadra (The King of Prayers).

You lions among humans,

Gone to freedom in the present, past and future

In the worlds of ten directions,

To all of you, with body, speech, and sincere mind, I bow down.

With the energy of aspiration for the bodhisattva way,

With a sense of deep respect,

And with as many bodies as atoms of the world,

To all you buddhas visualized as real, I bow down.

On every atom are buddhas numberless as atoms,
Each amidst a host of bodhisattvas,
And I am confident the sphere of all phenomena
Is entirely filled with buddhas in this way.

With infinite oceans of praise for you,
And oceans of sound from the aspects of my voice,
I sing the breathtaking excellence of buddhas,
And celebrate all of you gone to bliss.

Beautiful flowers and regal garlands,
Sweet music, scented oils, and parasols,
Sparkling lights and sublime incense,
I offer to you victorious ones.

Fine dress and fragrant perfumes,
Sandalwood powder heaped high as Mount Meru,
All wondrous offerings in spectacular array,
I offer to you victorious ones.

With transcendent offerings peerless and vast,
With profound admiration for all the buddhas,
With strength of conviction in the bodhisattva way,
I offer and bow down to all victorious ones.

Every harmful action I have done
With my body, speech, and mind
Overwhelmed by attachment, anger, and confusion,
All these I openly lay bare before you.

I lift up my heart and rejoice in all positive potential
Of the buddhas and bodhisattvas in ten directions,
Of solitary realizers, hearers still training, and those beyond,
And of all ordinary beings.

You who are the bright lights of worlds in ten directions,
 Who have attained a buddha's omniscience through the stages of
 awakening,
 All you who are my guides,
 Please turn the supreme wheel of Dharma.

With palms together I earnestly request:
 You who may actualize parinirvana,
 Please stay with us for eons numberless as atoms of the world,
 For the happiness and well-being of all wanderers in samsara.

Whatever slight positive potential I may have created,
 By paying homage, offering, and acknowledging my faults,
 Rejoicing, and requesting that the buddhas stay and teach,
 I now dedicate all this for full awakening.

Author's Dedication and Colophons:

I've set down clearly, according to the practice
Of Manjugosha Guru Tsongkhapa,
How to pay homage and make worship and prayer
To the deity host of the King of Sages.

May the strong wind of virtue from striving in this
Blow away the cloud layer of sins and offenses
In the sky of the minds of beings of evil times
And a thousand lights of good collections blaze.

May the Conqueror's Doctrine spread in all times and places,
The beings who uphold the Doctrine have long lives,
The Sangha's teaching and practice greatly increase,
And the might of the patrons flourish, too.

In every spacious country, may all decline
Of the degenerate age be pacified,
And as in the Age of Perfection, may all beings
Pass their lives in excellent happiness.

May I, too, in all my future lives
Gain the good rebirth, meet the Doctrine,
Devote myself to holy spiritual friends,
And uphold the true Dharma of scripture and insight.

This Source of Good Collections, a Rite of Homage, Worship, and Prayer to the Teacher, the King of Sages, Remembering His Previous Lives and Biography is the fruit of urging that one such was needed by Khebe Thuring Chenpo Gadän Tänkyong Tsering, well-trained in the sciences in general and in the upper and lower baskets of religious philosophy in particular, with the gift of a khata and ten sangs of silver; urging with a gift of khata and money by the Tai Lama of Gegön Lapchäi Ling, the lord of propounders of 100 texts Dragpa Chöphel, and recently, earnest urging by two discerning scholars, Gedun Norbu and Lo-zang Chöjor. Linked by devotion recollecting the Teacher's kindness, and having taken as head ornament the dust of the feet of many learned and realized lamas, I, that reflection of a learned logician in the beggar-monk Ngawang Paldän, composed it in my pleasant room near the monastery Gadän Shädrub Tänphel Ling at Hardäl Pese. May it benefit the Doctrine and migrating beings. SARVA MANGALAM!

Translators' Colophons:

An English translation of this rite was requested by Venerable Lama Thubten Zopa Rinpoche. A preliminary draft translation was prepared in 1985 by Thubten Sherab Sherpa (translator) and Sharon Gross (editor). They dedicate their work to the heartfelt practice of Dharma everywhere, thereby fulfilling the wishes of precious and most Venerable Lama Thubten Yeshe, whose compassionate guidance they gratefully follow; and to the long lives of all those holy, virtuous guides preserving the Doctrine in these times, especially His Holiness the XIV Dalai Lama.

The present translation was made in August to October 1986 by Martin Willson. Through whatever virtue he and his benefactors have so gathered, may everyone who sees this book, hears of it, or reads, recites, or hears read or recited even a single verse of it develop unshakeable faith in the King of Sages and his teachings, appreciating the common heritage of the many Buddhist traditions. May all the desires of the lamas and students associated with FPMT for translations of very long Tibetan rites be fully satisfied. And may it rapidly come to pass that all the surviving scriptures, treatises, and other texts of Indian Buddhism that would be beneficial to the English speaking beings of this age of degeneracy are reliably translated into mellifluous English and suitably published and become of limitless benefit to the world!

FPMT Colophons:

This text was originally published by Wisdom Publications, London, in 1988. Reprinted here with permission.

Tibetan phonetics and general spellings were altered to comply with the FPMT style sheet by Sarah Shifferd for FPMT Education Services, June 2013.

For publication in this volume, the original translations of The King of Prayers, The Practice of Prostrations to the Thirty-Five Confession Buddhas, Taking the Eight Mahayana Precepts, The Foundation of All Good Qualities, and Prayer for the Flourishing of the Doctrine were replaced by standard FPMT versions of these prayers, as they appear in Essential Buddhist Prayers, Vol. 1, published by FPMT Education Services. Long Life prayers were added. Their colophons appear here:

Taking the Eight Mahayana Precepts has been compiled on the basis of preliminary prayers extracted from Kopan Monastery Prayers and Practices, 1990 and the original booklet published by Wisdom Publications entitled A Direct and Unmistaken Method, by Lama Zopa Rinpoche. The English versions of the prayers have been lightly edited using translations in A Direct and Unmistaken

Method and those of Venerable George Churinoff, edited by Venerable Thubten Dondrub and Jampa Lamsang, in the Nalanda prayer book, and by Venerable Constance Miller, FPMT Education Services, February 2001. Revised in 2003, 2004. New lines for Generating Bodhichitta as per instructions from Lama Zopa Rinpoche, received April 9, 2006; translated by Lama Zopa Rinpoche, scribed by Kendall Magnussen. Prayer to Take the Precepts and Commitment Prayer to Keep the Precepts changed according to the advice of Lama Zopa Rinpoche, Lamp of the Path Retreat, September, 2009. New translation of the Commitment Prayer by Geshe Gelek Chodak, Kadampa Center, USA.

The Confession of Downfalls is based on an original translation by Lama Zopa Rinpoche, extracted from the booklet entitled, The Bodhisattva's Confession of Moral Downfalls, Kopan Monastery, Nepal. Originally revised and edited by Venerables Thubten Dondrub, George Churinoff, and Constance Miller, FPMT Education Services, 2000. Additional revisions made according to instructions by Lama Zopa Rinpoche given at the Mitrugpa retreat, Milarepa Center, Vermont, USA, August 2002. Motivation, visualizations, and meditations compiled by Venerable Sarah Thresher according to instructions of Lama Zopa Rinpoche. Additional editing and corrections made by Venerable Gyalten Mindrol, FPMT Education Services, November 2005.

The title Bodhisattva's Confession of Moral Downfalls has been changed to Confession of Downfalls to the Thirty-Five Buddhas at the request of Lama Zopa Rinpoche, April 2003. Translation of first line of Refuge Prayer on p. 113 by Venerable Steve Carlier, November 2005.

General Confession is based on a translation by Glenn H. Mullin, with adjustments by Lama Zopa Rinpoche. Lightly edited by Venerable Sarah Thresher and Kendall Magnussen, FPMT Education Services, January 2003. The line "have been disrespectful to my spiritual friends living in ordination" was changed according to verbal instruction of Lama Zopa Rinpoche, October 2005.

The Foundation of All Good Qualities: From the Jor Chö booklet, translator, Jampäl Lhundrup, edited by Venerable Ailsa Cameron, Wisdom Publications, 1988. Lightly edited by Venerable Constance Miller and Nick Ribush, April 1999.

King of Prayers: Translated by Jesse Fenton in Seattle, Washington in 2002 by request of her teacher, Venerable Thubten Chodrön, relying on the commentary Ornament Clarifying the Exalted Intention of Samantabhadra ('phags pa bzang po spyod pa'i smon lam gyi rnam par bshad pa kun tu bzang po'i dgongs pa gsal bar byed pa'i rgyan) by Jangkya Rolpäi Dorje, and on clarification of many difficult points by the very kind Khensur Rinpoche Könchog Tsering of Ganden Monastery.

Prayer for the Flourishing of Je Tsongkhapa's Teachings: Translated by Martin Willson, Nalanda Monastery, August 1985. Taken from Rites and Prayers, Wisdom Publications, London, 1985. Lightly edited, FPMT Education Services, June 1999.

Prayer That Spontaneously Fulfills All Wishes:

Original Colophon:

This verse came spontaneously from the holy mind of His Holiness the Dalai Lama when requested by the late head of the Nyingma School, His Holiness Dilgo Khyentse Rinpoche, for a prayer that he could recite every day so that all His Holiness' holy wishes could be fulfilled.

Translator's Colophon:

Draft translation by Lama Zopa Rinpoche on the auspicious occasion of extensive dedications for the White Tara retreat at Shakyamuni Center, Taichung, Taiwan, Losar 2007. Lightly edited by Venerable Sarah Thresher. Phonetics provided by Venerable Tenzin Dekyong and lightly edited by Venerable Gyalten Mindrol, July 2007.

A Short Long Life Prayer for Lama Zopa Rinpoche:

Requested by Geshe Könchog Kyab on behalf of the students of Thubten Kunga Center, Florida, this prayer was composed on the fifteenth day of the Saka Dawa month of the year 2000 by Choden Rinpoche at Vajrapani Institute in Boulder Creek, California, USA. English translation by Jampa Gendun.

Foundation for the Preservation of the Mahayana Tradition

The Foundation for the Preservation of the Mahayana Tradition (FPMT) is a dynamic worldwide organization devoted to education and public service. Established by Lama Thubten Yeshe and Lama Zopa Rinpoche, FPMT touches the lives of beings all over the world. In the early 1970s, young Westerners inspired by the intelligence and practicality of the Buddhist approach made contact with these lamas in Nepal and the organization was born. Now encompassing over 150 Dharma centers, projects, social services and publishing houses in thirty-three countries, we continue to bring the enlightened message of compassion, wisdom, and peace to the world.

We invite you to join us in our work to develop compassion around the world! Visit our web site at www.fpmt.org to find a center near you, a study program suited to your needs, practice materials, meditation supplies, sacred art, and online teachings. We offer Friends of FPMT, a program with benefits such as Mandala magazine and access to the FPMT Online Learning Center. Please also check out some of the vast projects Lama Zopa Rinpoche has developed to preserve the Mahayana tradition and help end suffering in the world today. Lastly, never hesitate to contact us if we can be of service to you.
