Renewing the Bodhisattva and Tantric Vows

Taking the Bodhisattva Vows

To be recited only by those who have taken these vows.

Motivation

The purpose of my life is to free all my kind mother sentient beings from suffering and to lead them to enlightenment. To do this, I must receive enlightenment. Without the bodhisattva vows this is not possible. Therefore, I am going to take the bodhisattva vows for the benefit of all my kind mother sentient beings.

I go for refuge to the Three Jewels.
I confess individually all negativities.
I rejoice in the virtue of migrating beings.
I hold with my mind a buddha's enlightenment.

I go for refuge until my enlightenment
To the Buddha, the Dharma, and the Supreme Assembly.
In order to fully accomplish the purposes of myself and others,
I shall generate the mind of enlightenment.

Having generated the mind of supreme enlightenment,
I shall invite all sentient beings to be my guests.

I shall undertake the pleasing supreme conduct of enlightenment.

May I accomplish buddhahood in order to benefit migrating beings. (3x)

Think strongly that you have received the complete pure set of bodhisattva vows (those vows that were broken are now restored, and those that were kept have been increased).

Taking the Tantric Vows

To be recited only by those who have taken these vows.

Motivation

That an infinite number of my kind mother sentient beings are suffering in samsara is so unbearable. I must free them from suffering and lead them to enlightenment as quickly as possible without even delaying one second. To do this, I must become enlightened. Without tantric vows this is not possible. Therefore, I am going to take the tantric vows for the benefit of all my kind mother sentient beings.

All repetitions:

All buddhas and bodhisattvas, please listen to me!
I (say your tantric name), from now until I reach the essence of buddhahood,
Shall generate the sacred, peerless bodhichitta,
Just as all buddhas of the three times have ensured themselves of awakening
By generating it.

First repetition only (or omit these lines and continue below):

I pledge to uphold the vows of the Buddha lineage:
To rely on the peerless Triple Gem: Buddha, Dharma, and Sangha,
And the three disciplines of observing proper behavior,
Gathering virtuous Dharma, and benefiting sentient beings.

(Vairochana)

I pledge to uphold the vajra, bell, and mudra of the great
Vajra lineage

And to honor my teachers. (Akshobhya)
 I pledge to practice the four types of giving, six times each day,
 Keeping in mind the delightful commitments of the great
 Ratna lineage. (Ratnasambhava)
 For the great Padma lineage, I pledge to uphold individually the holy dharmas that arose from great enlightenment,
 Those of the outer, secret, and three vehicles. (Amitabha)
 For the great, supreme Karma lineage, I pledge to uphold all vows well
 And to make as many offerings as possible. (Amoghasiddhi)
 I shall generate the vows of peerless bodhichitta
 For the sake of all and uphold all samayas without exception.

Second and third repetitions only (this verse may be used for all three repetitions):

I shall uphold all the general and specific tantric vows and commitments
 Of the five lineages without exception.

All repetitions:

I shall deliver those not delivered, liberate those not liberated, Give breath to those unable to breathe, and place all beings in the state beyond sorrow.

Think strongly that you have received the complete pure set of tantric vows (those vows that were broken are now restored, and those that were kept have been increased).

Special request for the three great purposes

I prostrate and go for refuge to the Guru and the Three Precious Gems: Please bless my mind.

I am requesting you to immediately pacify all the wrong conceptions, from incorrect devotion to the Guru up to the subtle dual view of the white, red, and dark visions, that exist in my mind and in the minds of all mother sentient beings.

I am requesting you to immediately generate all the right realizations from guru devotion up to enlightenment in my mind and in the minds of all mother sentient beings.

I am requesting you to pacify all outer and inner obstacles to actualizing the entire graduated path to enlightenment in my mind and in the minds of all mother sentient beings. (3x)

Special Requests to One's Individual Gurus

Repeat the below three verses (refuge, short mandala, and the nine-line migtsema prayer), a number of times, substituting “la ma sang gyä la” / “Guru-Buddha” in line 6 of the nine-line prayer with: (1) “Tenzin Gyatso-la” for His Holiness the Dalai Lama; (2) the name of your root Guru, for example, “Lama Zopa-la”; (3) the names of your other gurus – one per repetition – and/or, (4) “la ma sang gyä la” for all remaining gurus. If you have limited time, you can recite this verse one time only using “la ma sang gyä la.”

Requesting the Guru

I request the precious Guru,
Who encompasses all objects of refuge of the past, present,
and future:
Please bless my mental continuum. (3x)

Visualization

Five-colored nectar beams flow forth from the Guru's holy body, entering my body and mind and those of all sentient beings. These purify all diseases, spirit harms, negative karmas, and obscurations, especially all the collections of obscurations, negative karmas, and degenerated samayas created in relationship to the virtuous friend, such as giving harm to the holy body, breaking advice, disturbing the holy mind, generating non-devotional thoughts, criticizing, giving up the Guru, and so forth.

From all my doors, sense organs, and pores these are dispelled in the form of liquid smoke or black soot. They are completely purified. My body becomes the nature of light, calm and clear.

My life, fortune (merit), and all my qualities of understanding and realizations are developed fully.

The blessings of the Guru's holy body, holy speech, and holy mind enter my body, speech, and mind and those of all sentient beings. I and all sentient beings are now under the protection of the virtuous friend.

Lam-Rim Prayer: Training the Mind through Meditation on the Complete Mahayana Path

Guru devotion as the root of the path

LC 84 ZHING CHHOG DAM PA JE TSÜN LA MA LA

Supreme field of merit, my perfect, pure Guru,

CHHÖ CHING GÜ PÄ SÖL WA TAB PÄI THÜ

Through the power of having made offerings and respectful requests,

DE LEG TSA WA GÖN PO KHYÖ NYI KYI

I seek your blessings, savior and the very root of happiness and goodness,

GYE ZHIN JE SU DZIN PAR JIN GYI LOB

That I may come under your joyful guidance.

Practicing Guru Devotion with the Nine Attitudes

I am requesting the kind lord root Guru,
Who is more extraordinary than all the buddhas:
Please bless me to be able to devote myself to the qualified lord
Guru with great respect in all my future lifetimes.

By realizing that correctly devoting myself to the kind lord Guru – who is the foundation of all good qualities – is the root of happiness and goodness, I shall devote myself to him with great respect, not forsaking him even at the cost of my life.

Thinking of the importance of the qualified Guru,
May I allow myself to enter under his control.

May I be like an obedient son,*
acting exactly in accordance with the Guru's advice.

Even when maras, evil friends and the like try to split me from the Guru,

May I be like a vajra, inseparable forever.

When the Guru gives me work, whatever the burden,
May I be like the earth, carrying all.

When I devote myself to the Guru,
Whatever suffering occurs (hardships or problems),
May I be like a mountain, immovable.
(The mind should not be upset or discouraged.)

Even if I have to perform all the unpleasant tasks,
May I be like a servant of the king,
with a mind undisturbed.

May I abandon pride.
Holding myself lower than the Guru,

May I be like a sweeper.
May I be like a rope, joyfully holding the Guru's work, no matter how difficult or heavy a burden.

Even when the Guru criticizes, provokes or ignores me,
May I be like a dog without anger;
never responding with anger.

May I be like a (ferry) boat, never upset at any time to come and go for the Guru.

O glorious and precious root Guru,
Please bless me to be able to practice in this way.
From now on, in all my future lifetimes,
May I be able to devote myself to the Guru in this way.

By reciting these words aloud and reflecting on their meaning in your mind, you will have the good fortune to be able to devote yourself correctly to the precious Guru, from life to life in all your future lifetimes.

If you offer service and respect and make offerings to the precious Guru with these nine attitudes, even if you do not practice intentionally, you will develop many good qualities, collect extensive merit, and quickly achieve full enlightenment.

* It has been suggested to change “son” to “child.” However, according to Lama Zopa Rinpoche: “The term ‘son’ is not used in dependence upon the characteristics of the body, but of the mind. This term is used because it is normally the son who becomes the king. The daughter becomes the queen, but does not become the king. Because this example is applied here, the disciple is called ‘the son of the vajra master,’ but it has nothing to do with the body.”

From our side may we always see them as enlightened and always perform only actions most pleasing to their holy minds. May we always fulfill their holy wishes instantly.

Colophon:

This translation of the Lama Chöpa (Ritual Offering to the Guru) verses, from the beginning up to the Lam-rim prayer and including the tsog offering and the offering of the leftover tsog, was compiled in September 1996 by Gelong Thubten Dondrub (Neil Huston) by relying on previous translations of Alex Berzin, Martin Willson, Geshe Thupten Jinpa, and original contributions by the editor. It was revised in August 2000 and again in February 2001. The outline points and headings were added from the original translation by Martin Willson that appeared in Rites and Prayers, Wisdom Publications, 1985.

The translation of the Lama Chöpa Lam-rim prayer portion of this ritual was reprinted with permission from Snow Lion Publications from The Union of Bliss and Emptiness, by His Holiness the Dalai Lama, Snow Lion, 1985.

The short prayer Practicing Guru Devotion with the Nine Attitudes was written by the highly attained lama, Shabkar Tsokdrug Rangdrol. It was translated by Lama Zopa Rinpoche and scribed by Lillian Too and Ven. Thubten Dekyong (Tsenla) at Aptos, California, in February 1999 and edited by the Lama Yeshe Wisdom Archive Editing Group at Land of Medicine Buddha, in March 1999.

This entire practice has been lightly edited by Ven. Constance Miller, FPMT Education Services, October 2001 for consistency of grammar and spelling. Special thanks go to Rachel Ryer, who painstakingly organized and input all the corrected phonetics for this booklet. Also, to Vens. Marcel Bertels, Holly Ansett, Sarah Thresher, Thubten Dondrub (Neil Huston) and Sangye Khadro (Kathleen McDonald) and to Kendall Magnussen and Nick Ribush for their detailed and kind assistance in preparing and correcting this text.

Revised in February 2004 by Kendall Magnussen, FPMT Education Services.

Translation of Lama Chöpa verses checked and corrected by request of FPMT Education Services in December 2008 by Ven. Fedor Stracke. Revised and new formatting completed by Ven. Gyalten Mindrol, FPMT Education Services, on the advice of Lama Zopa Rinpoche, and according to the feedback and requests of students, teachers, center directors, spiritual program coordinators, and friends from around the world, December 2008. Taking the Bodhisattva Vows prayer updated by Joona Repo, September 2013. Praise in Eight Lines updated by Joona Repo, March 2013.

Foundation for the Preservation of the Mahayana Tradition

The Foundation for the Preservation of the Mahayana Tradition (FPMT) is a dynamic worldwide organization devoted to education and public service. Established by Lama Thubten Yeshe and Lama Zopa Rinpoche, FPMT touches the lives of beings all over the world. In the early 1970s, young Westerners inspired by the intelligence and practicality of the Buddhist approach made contact with these lamas in Nepal and the organization was born. Now encompassing over 150 Dharma centers, projects, social services and publishing houses in thirty-three countries, we continue to bring the enlightened message of compassion, wisdom, and peace to the world.

We invite you to join us in our work to develop compassion around the world! Visit our web site at www.fpmt.org to find a center near you, a study program suited to your needs, practice materials, meditation supplies, sacred art, and online teachings. We offer Friends of FPMT, a program with benefits such as Mandala magazine and access to the FPMT Online Learning Center. Please also check out some of the vast projects Lama Zopa Rinpoche has developed to preserve the Mahayana tradition and help end suffering in the world today. Lastly, never hesitate to contact us if we can be of service to you.
